Dear Mr Grech,

I hope this email finds you well.

Thank you for meeting us. It was a pleasure to speak to you and hear your story.

Further to our meeting, kindly note that Dr Tua has confirmed that she is still representing you and is working on your case. Therefore we urge you to contact her to discuss your case. As we told you in our meeting, in accordance with the Code of Ethics which has been established for Advocates we cannot represent you.

However, in this respect, Dr Ibtisam Sadegh, after having spoken to Dr Tua, is convinced that Dr. Tua does in fact want to help you and is still in fact acting on your behalf.

Kind regards,
Katrina and Alexia

Hi Katrina and Alexia,

Would you have expected Dr. Tua to be so naive to admit she is defrauding me? I paid her Eur 5,000 in January 2021 and not the slight progress was made after so long. And this when I had set up a website complete with evidence and documents which she could have easily used in court if she really wanted to help me. It doesn't seem you or your colleagues bothered visit the website either (from my google analytics). I also have a phone call with Tua as evidence that she is defrauding me I am telling her that the psychiatrists' court reports are based on false testimony, yet she doesn't care at all.

And do you think it is professionalism from Dr. Sadegh as a lawyer and as a University lecturer to suggest me choose to be boarded out or when I told her about the extortion on Dr. Azzopardi's part when he threatened me I either take the pills or else don't expect liberty she covered it up saying he was just giving me a direction? I guess having myself been some illegal immigrant rather than a simpleton maltese would have had for sure better luck and ended with a court room packed with lawyers defending my case.

Anyway many thanks for visiting me, wish you all the best in your studies and career.

Nicholas Grech

Don't know if you found something regarding my question on cover up of a crime. A simple example is say a boy reporting some abuse by the teacher to the head of school, and the latter does not take action or even tells him those are just his delusions and should take medication and even lock him away from sight kidnap him to threaten him force him not to pursue the matter further. I think cover up of crime can also be seen as a form of obstruction of justice.

Dear Mr Grech,

We are currently working on the legal opinion, we are awaiting feedback from our supervisors and we will send it over as soon as we have it.

Two months have passed, don't know if you found anything regarding my question on cover-up of crime. Can explain it simpler: Person A has abused and keeps abusing Person B. Person C who occupies a position of authority of trust is told of the matter and even is given incriminatory evidence which further corroborates the abuses, yet Person C (Ibtisam an example and a bad example to you) chooses to remain silent, not only does not help Person B but would rather let him be abused further than break it up with Person A who is a big head, not dare incriminate him. Rather let the victim be kept innocently locked kidnapped, than in any way incriminate his friend the culprit who instead merits to have been locked in jail since long.

Dear Mr Grech,

Kindly note that we cannot give you any legal advice because the law clinic has advised us that it would go against the Code of Ethics of the Chamber of Advocates since you are already represented by another lawyer.

Kind regards,

Alexia and Katrina

I am not represented by any lawyer. I had told you so when you came here to talk with me that lawyer Rachel Tua had long been making fool of me, and by now it has also been long that she cut all contacts with me, despite the €5,000 she took me supposed to appoint a magisterial enquiry and open a constitutional case amongst others, she instead did nothing she promised me just defrauded me up to the last cent. I understand you and whoever is telling you to act this way, that the way forward in corrupt Malta has always been to befriend the big heads and don't do anything which incriminates them, rather than help me the victim the man in the street. Who cares that I am innocently locked having been sentenced by one who should have recused himself, having had my case prejudiced from the start, had unfair trial by one whom I had reported in the past to the Comm. for the Adm. of Justice and because of me had to go exile himself for years go work in the Balkans, and happened to have another court case in 2014 and be unfortunate enough to have to face the same corrupt magistrate again, who took the opportunity to have his fullest revenge on me, even giving the sentence intentionally on the day of 26-June-14, not a day before nor a day after, to show me the hatred and revenge he had long been waiting of doing me since my 1st court case of 2001. Keeping me kidnapped and drugged up poisoned at leisure making me sick with parkinsonism and so many other frightening side effects is what is needed so that the true culprits keep running scot free. I understand perfectly well what you mean by code of ethics of lawyers: it is to never defend one if in doing so incriminates the big heads and the friends and friend of friends. It is all in vain asking you again to help when in Malta all lawyers are made and trained to follow this sadistic philosophy.
